

SHOPRITE HOLDINGS LIMITED
("SHOPRITE HOLDINGS" OR THE "GROUP")

Application of the King IV Code Principles

The Board is committed to complying with the requirements of the Companies Act, 71 of 2008, as amended, the JSE Listings Requirements and the King Report on Corporate Governance for South Africa 2016 (King IV).

The principles of King IV are adopted and applied by Shoprite Holdings as disclosed in this document.

Leadership, Ethics and Corporate Citizenship

Principle 1

Leadership

The Board should lead ethically and effectively.

- 1.1 The Board maintains a high level of individual and collective responsibilities, accountability, fairness and transparency, which together drive a culture of risk awareness, ethical behaviour and value creation.
- 1.2 During the 2020 financial year, the Board reviewed its terms of reference to ensure compliance with King IV. This charter as well as the Group's Code of Conduct sets the basis of the Group's ethics framework. To ensure that the Board has full oversight of the Group's ethics related matters, regular reports on the performance are furnished to the Audit & Risk as well as the Social & Ethics Committees.
- 1.3 The Board is competent to steer and set the strategic direction of Shoprite Holdings and oversee the implementation of approved strategies by management, ensuring accountability for the Group's performance. The Board is mindful of the impact of the Group's activities on society and the environment, considering key risks and opportunities, and seeks to ensure sustained value creation for all stakeholders.
- 1.4 Further references in this regard can be found in the 2020 Integrated Report under the Group leadership section with specific reference to:
 - Governance approach and role of the Board;
 - Board and Executive Relationship; and
 - Governance functions

Principle 2

Organisational Ethics

The Board should govern the ethics of the organisation in a way that supports the establishment of an ethical culture.

- 2.1 The Board has implemented appropriate structures and processes to ensure that the Group's business is conducted in an ethical manner, taking into account the impact on the economy, society and the environment as well as balancing the diverse interest of all its various stakeholders.
- 2.2 The Audit and Risk and Social and Ethics Committees provide oversight of the Group's ethics.
- 2.3 An ethical corporate culture is promoted and sustained through:
 - Endorsing the values of the Group documented in the Code of Conduct;
 - The Code which has been communicated to all employees through publishing it on the intranet and incorporation by reference in employee contracts;

- Endorsing internal policies, specifically around Conflict of Interest, Anti-bribery and Corruption, Gifts and Entertainment and Whistle-blowing to address practices related to ethical conduct efficiently;
 - Monitoring and reporting on the measures taken by the Group to achieve adherence thereof through the Social and Ethics and Audit and Risk Committees; and
 - All business conducted by the Board and management aligns with the values of the Group.
- 2.4 The implementation and execution of the Code of Ethics and Conduct and related policies are delegated to management.
- 2.5 Employees have a duty to report any suspected breaches of the Code of Conduct. The anonymous whistle-blowing hotline continues to be promoted across the business.
- 2.6 Further references in this regard can be found in the 2020 Integrated Report in the Social and Ethics Committee Report and also in the 2020 Sustainability Report.

Principle 3

Responsible Corporate Citizenship

The Board should ensure that the organisation is and is seen to be a responsible corporate citizen.

- 3.1 The Board ensures that the Group is, and is viewed to be a responsible corporate citizen. Further to the Social and Ethics Committee having oversight of ethics matters, it also maintains oversight of various sustainability and good corporate citizen matters.
- 3.2 We have implemented various initiatives and programmes to ensure that we promote and protect the environment and maintain the health and safety of our people, suppliers and customers. In this regard we have implemented or engaged in the following initiatives:
- Growing consumer awareness on issues such as biodiversity, food waste, packaging and nutritional health;
 - Monitoring and reporting our resource consumption;
 - Responsible sourcing through the Group supply chain;
 - Participation in the Carbon Disclosure Project and have set targets to reduce our carbon footprint;
 - Participation in a retail sector industry approved Waste Management plan;
 - Deepened our efforts to engage with employees, in particular store-based workers;
 - Invested in a centralised monitoring system to ensure the safety and security of our customers and employees at our stores; and
 - Continued with our corporate social investment spending and upliftment of the communities where we operate as well as charitable projects and initiatives.

3.3 Further details can be obtained in :

- The 2020 Integrated Report in the Social and Ethics Committee report; and
- Our detailed 2020 Sustainability report.

Strategy, Performance and Reporting

Principle 4

Strategy and Performance

The Board should appreciate that the organisation's core purpose, its risks and opportunities, strategy, business model, performance and sustainable development are all inseparable elements of the value creation process.

4.1 The Board acknowledges that strategy, risk, performance and sustainability cannot be separated. The Board and its various committees monitor key performance aspects for material issues, as well as a broader range of sustainability, risk and compliance indicators.

4.2 Our material issues are:

- Impact of Covid-19;
- Trade performance and growth opportunities;
- Supply chain structure and cost configuration;
- Information Technology;
- Quality and Safety;
- Social license to operate;
- Employees;
- Leadership transformation and employment equity;
- Governance;
- Growth and development of business;
- Regulatory environment; and
- Socio-economic contribution.

4.3 The Board determines the Group's strategic direction and provides corporate governance oversight. In this regard it ensures that the business portfolio is managed in a responsible fashion. In analysing the strategic direction and objectives of the Group, the Board:

- Ensures that the strategy is aligned with the Group's business model and value drivers taking into account the legitimate expectations and interests of stakeholders;
- Satisfies itself that the strategy and business plan are not encumbered by risks that have not been properly assessed; and
- Aims to ensure that the strategy results in a sustainable outcome.

4.4 Further references in this regard can be found in the 2020 Integrated Report under the following headings:

- Leadership reports;
- Our strategic drivers;
- Overview of Board and Committee activities;
- Stakeholder relationships; and
- The Shoprite investment case.

Principle 5Reporting

The Board should ensure that reports issued by the organisation enable stakeholders to make informed assessments of the organisation's performance, and its short, medium and long- term prospects.

- 5.1 Sustainability reporting and disclosure are integrated with the Group's financial reporting. Independently assured sustainability reporting and disclosures has not taken place and remains under review.
- 5.2 The Board delegates the governance and approval of the Integrated Report to the Audit and Risk Committee.
- 5.3 The Audit and Risk Committee discharge its duties by:
- Ensuring that the Group issues an Integrated report annually;
 - Assessing the integrity of external reports;
 - Approving the reporting frameworks adopted by management;
 - Ensuring that all issued reports comply with legal requirements and meet the legitimate and reasonable information needs of material stakeholders;
 - Approving the threshold of materiality used for purposes of disclosing information or not; and
 - Overseeing the assurance provided by the Internal Audit department on sustainability reporting and disclosure.

Governing Structures and Delegation

Principle 6Primary Role and Responsibilities of the Board

The Board should serve as the focal point and custodian of corporate governance in the organisation.

- 6.1 The Board is the custodian of corporate governance in the Group and has adopted a formal terms of reference setting out its responsibilities, duties and accountability. The charter was reviewed during the period under review.
- 6.2 Our governance practices and focus areas are disclosed in the 2020 Integrated Report.

Principle 7Composition of the Board

The Board should comprise the appropriate balance of knowledge, skills, experience, diversity and independence for it to discharge its governance role and responsibilities objectively and effectively.

- 7.1 The Board comprises of six (6) non-executive and three (3) executive directors. Five (5) of the non-executive directors are independent. The Chairperson is not independent and a lead independent non-executive director has been appointed.
- 7.2 Directors are appointed through a formal process. The Nomination Committee assists in identifying suitable candidates and final approval of appointment resides with the Board. All effort is taken to ensure the composition of the Board comprise the appropriate mix of knowledge, skills and experience (business, commercial and industry) which are sufficient to deliver on strategies and create long term shareholder value. Targets are also set to more adequately reflect the demographics of South Africa
- 7.3 The Group has adopted a Promotion of Gender and Race Diversity policy at Board level which seeks to achieve a voluntary target of black female representation. Further details in this regard are available in the 2020 Nominations Committee report in the 2020 Integrated Report.
- 7.4 One third of the non-executive directors retire annually by rotation in terms of the Shoprite Holdings MOI. The Nomination Committee makes recommendations regarding the re-election of the retiring directors considering performance, meeting conduct, etc. The independence and performance of non-executive directors who have served on the Board for more than 9 years is subjected to a rigorous review.
- 7.5 A formal induction programme exists for all new directors. Upon their appointment new directors receive an induction pack consisting of, inter alia, agendas and minutes of the previous Board and sub-committee meetings, the latest Integrated Report, relevant insurance information, strategic documents, relevant policies and charters, and are informed of their fiduciary duties in terms of the Companies Act and JSE Listings Requirements. They also visit various sites and distribution centres and have meetings with executive management.
- 7.6 The roles and responsibilities of the chairperson and the CEO are separated. The CEO and CFO are executive members of the Board.

Principle 8Committees of the Board

The Board should ensure that its arrangements for delegation within its own structures promote independent judgement, and assist with balance of power and the effective discharge of its duties.

- 8.1 The Board has delegated particular roles and responsibilities to Board Committees, which operates under Board approved Terms' of Reference, setting out the nature and extent of the responsibilities delegated and decision-making authority.
- 8.2 The Terms of Reference of each Board Committee is reviewed annually. The Board ensures that each Board Committee has the necessary skills, experience and knowledge to discharge their duties effectively. Committee members are nominated by the Nomination Committee and appointed by the Board, except for the Audit and Risk Committee whose members are annually elected by the shareholders.

8.3 The Board has appointed the following Committees:

- Audit and Risk Committee - a statutory requirement and comprises of at least three (3) independent, non-executive directors which have the necessary financial literacy, skills and experience to execute their duties effectively. This committee is also accountable for the risk management process, which includes a comprehensive risk management system that incorporates continual risk assessment, evaluation and embedding of internal controls. The Chairperson is an independent, non-executive director.
- Nomination Committee - all members are non-executive directors with the majority being independent. The primary responsibility of the Committee is to review and recommend the size and composition of the Board, succession plans for executive and non-executive directors and the evaluation of the performance and independence of the Board, its committees and individual members.
- Remuneration Committee - all members are non-executive directors with the majority being independent. The Chairperson is an independent, non-executive director. The primary responsibilities include reviewing and approving short- and long-term incentive plans (and related performance targets), recommending changes to employment contracts and approving individual remuneration levels of executives and top management. Further details on the remuneration policy and its implementation are included in the 2020 Integrated Report.
- Social & Ethics Committee - a statutory requirement and comprises of executive and non-executive directors, with the majority being non-executive. The Committee's main focus areas include sustainability, employment equity, skills development and health and safety.

This delegation by the Board of its responsibilities does not constitute a discharge of its accountability.

Additional information on the roles, responsibilities and the activities of the Committees during the 2019/20 financial year is disclosed in the 2020 Integrated Report. A detailed report by the Chairperson of the Audit and Risk Committee is included in the 2020 annual financial statements. The detailed report of the Social and Ethics Committee is included in the 2020 Sustainability Report.

Principle 9

Evaluations of the performance of the Board

The Board should ensure that the evaluation of its own performance and that of its committees, its chair and its individual members, support continued improvement in its performance and effectiveness.

- 9.1 During the reporting period, an independent appraisal was conducted by a specialist service provider. The results have been shared with the Board as input to enhance the Board's functions and governance processes.

- 9.2 The Board has also commenced with a review of the composition of the Board that included the size, skills required as well as the gender and race diversity of the Board.

Principle 10

Appointment and delegation to management

The Board should ensure that the appointment of, and delegation to, management contribute to role clarity and the effective exercise of authority and responsibilities.

- 10.1 The Board has delegated to the CEO, CFO and other executive management the authority to run the day-to-day business subject to an approval framework established by the Board.
- 10.2 The Executive Committee comprise the CEO, CFO and nominated business unit and departmental heads who are responsible to implement and execute the approved strategy and discharge all duties and functions as delegated by the Board. The Executive Committee meets on a regular basis.
- 10.3 Shoprite Holdings has an appointed company secretary who is responsible for corporate governance and plays a vital role at Board level. A formal annual review of the qualifications, competency and performance of the Company secretary was conducted during 2020. The Board believes the company secretary is suitably skilled, qualified and experienced enough to fulfil the role competently, that he is independent and maintains an arm's length relationship with the directors. Further details can be obtained in the 2020 Integrated Report.

Governance Functional Areas

Principle 11

Risk Governance

The Board should govern risk in a way that supports the organisation in setting and achieving its strategic objectives.

- 11.1 The Board is accountable for governance oversight of management's performance of the enterprise-wide risk management and compliance function and associated risk to enable the Group to achieve its strategic objectives .
- 11.2 The Audit and Risk Committee exercises governance oversight of the Group's application of its combined assurance plan and whether such plan is aligned to achieving the objectives outlined in the King IV Code.
- 11.3 Further details in this regard can be obtained in 2020 Integrated Report, Sustainability Report and the Audit and Risk Committee Report included in the annual financial statements.

Principle 12

Technology and Information Governance

The Board should govern technology and information in a way that supports the organisation setting and achieving its strategic objectives.

- 12.1 The Board has assumed the responsibility for IT governance but has delegated the establishment of an appropriate IT policy, framework and strategy to management. IT reports to the Audit & Risk Committee on various aspects including compliance with relevant governance frameworks and results of internal audit reviews. An information technology (IT) governance framework has been adopted and is reviewed and approved by the Audit & Risk Committee on a regular basis.

- 12.2 IT is fully integrated into the Group strategic planning process which ensures alignment in the achievement of the Group's business objectives.
- 12.3 The Audit and Risk Committee has mandated IT governance within the Group via an approved IT charter.
- 12.4 An IT projects approval committee monitors and evaluates significant IT investments and expenditure. A report in this regard is tabled at each meeting of the Audit and Risk Committee.
- 12.5 The IT risk management framework includes the assessment and management of all significant IT risks, including disaster recovery and other IT practices. Reports in this regard are presented to the Risk forum and Audit and Risk Committee.
- 12.6 An information management strategy has been implemented which monitors the management of assets, including the management of information security.
- 12.7 IT is represented at the meetings of the Audit & Risk Committee by the CFO who forms part of the various IT steering committees.
- 12.8 Global data leakage prevention, legal and regulatory compliance along with identity and access management is the focus with a strong emphasis on confidential information and the availability of core business systems.
- 12.9 Further details can be obtained in the Audit and Risk Committee report under the heading "Governance of information and of technology" that forms part of the Shoprite Holdings audited 2020 annual financial statements.

Principle 13

Compliance Governance

The Board should govern compliance with applicable laws and adopted, non-binding rules, codes and standards in a way that supports the organisation being ethical and a good corporate citizen.

- 13.1 Promoting adherence to regulations and legislation applicable to the business across its various jurisdictions is a key focus area for the Group and forms part of its key business principles.
- 13.2 Legislative and regulatory compliance is monitored by the Group Compliance Function that resorts under the company secretary. The Group's RSA and Non-RSA regulatory universes were updated in 2020 and presented to the Audit and Risk Committee as well as the Board. The potential effect of pending legislation on the Group's business activities are also assessed prior to promulgation.
- 13.3 The Board is continually informed of material legislation, rules, codes, standards and changes thereto. Information on laws, rules and codes are shared with directors regularly through documentation and briefing sessions by the company secretary and external advisers.

- 13.4 The Group's enterprise risk management framework provides for all classes of risk that includes compliance risks.
- 13.5 The Board discloses how it has discharged its responsibility for governing and managing compliance, areas of focus, and inspections by authorities as well as material or repeated instances of non-compliance in the 2020 Integrated Report, Sustainability Report and the 2020 Audit and Risk Committee report also addresses the Group's compliance governance in further detail.

Principle 14 Remuneration Governance

The Board should ensure that the organisation remunerates fairly, responsibly and transparently so as to promote the achievement of strategic objectives and positive outcomes in the short, medium and long term.

- 14.1 Shoprite Holding's Remuneration Policy is designed to attract, develop, motivate and retain talented employees who enable the Group to pursue and achieve the strategic objectives and thereby enhancing value for all stakeholders.
- 14.2 Our remuneration philosophy is aimed at driving a high-performance culture by ensuring that our employees are motivated and committed to the success of the Group and promotes remuneration that is fair and responsible. The Remuneration policy is transparent and is based on the principles of market competitiveness, internal equity and pay for performance. It ensures that no discrimination occurs and recognises exceptional and value-adding performance. The Board, through the Remuneration Committee, oversee that the implementation and execution of the Remuneration Policy achieves the set objectives.
- 14.3 The remuneration of each director is disclosed in the 2020 Integrated Report.
- 14.4 As recommended by King IV, both the Remuneration Policy and the Implementation Report will be tabled at the 2020 AGM for separate non-binding advisory votes.
- 14.5 The Remuneration Report for 2020 has been structured along the lines as recommended by King IV. Further details are disclosed in the Remuneration Report that forms part of the 2020 Integrated Report.

Principle 15 Assurance

The Board should ensure that assurance services and functions enable an effective control environment, and that these support the integrity of information for internal decision-making and of the organisation's external reports.

- 15.1 The Board has adopted a combined assurance model that identifies the risk areas affecting the Group and maps the level of assurance being provided by the different lines rolled out into the business to improve the assessment of the levels of assurance provided.

- 15.2 Assurance services are overseen by the Audit and Risk Committee who is responsible for inter-alia:
- Reviewing the adequacy and effectiveness of the financial reporting process and system of internal control;
 - Approving the Integrated Report, annual financial statements, interim reports and recommend to the Board for final approval;
 - Overseeing the Internal Audit Function and approving the annual work plan;
 - Making recommendations to the shareholders for the appointment of the external auditors and confirming their independence;
 - Confirming the expertise of the CFO and Group finance function; and
 - Ensuring that the financial reporting procedures are appropriate and that those procedures are effective.
- 15.3 Internal audit follows a risk-based approach and provides written assessment of the effectiveness of the systems of internal controls and risk management to the Audit and Risk Committee. The Head of Internal Audit reports to the Chairperson of the Audit and Risk Committee and administratively to the CFO. He has unrestricted access to the members of the Audit and Risk Committee and executives of the Group.
- 15.4 Where compliance issues are identified, they are reported and rectified timeously. The Audit and Risk Committee and the Board are satisfied that control systems and procedures are suitably implemented, maintained and monitored by qualified personnel, with appropriate segregation of authority, duties and reporting lines.
- 15.5 Further details in this regard are disclosed in the 2020 Integrated Report and the Audit and Risk Committee report published as part of the annual financial statements.

Stakeholder Relationships

Principle 16

Stakeholders

In the execution of its governance role and responsibilities, the Board should adopt a stakeholder-inclusive approach that balances the needs, interests and expectations of material stakeholders in the best interests of the organisation over time.

- 16.1 The brand of “Shoprite” and its reputation is of paramount importance to the Board. The Board strives to achieve the appropriate balance between the various stakeholder groups, in the best interest of the Group. Every effort is made to ensure transparent and effective communication with stakeholders that is essential for building and maintaining confidence.
- 16.2 The Social and Ethics Committee, governs stakeholder relationships, communication and reporting and delegates to management the responsibility for execution.
- 16.3 The Group manages communications with its key financial audiences, including institutional shareholders and financial analysts, by conducting information sessions following the publication of interim and final results. Executive directors, as well as representatives from management, attend these sessions. A broad range of public communication channels are also used to disseminate information. There is also a dedicated investor centre on the corporate website.

16.4 Shareholders are encouraged to attend and actively participate in the AGM. The Board ensures that the chairpersons of the Audit and Risk, Social and Ethics, Remuneration and Nominations committees and the designated external auditor are present at the AGM to respond to questions from shareholders.

16.5 Effective and efficient dispute resolution forms part of the Group's legal and regulatory processes.

16.6 Further details can be obtained from the 2020 Integrated and Sustainability Reports.
