

Sixty60's Braai Bike: Delivering a taste of home in New Zealand

When you're 12,000 km from home and facing the All Blacks on their turf, a little extra homegrown spirit can go a long way.

At Checkers, we believe that South African heritage lives in the things we share — a meal, time with friends and family, and the braai that brings it all together.

So, as the boys gear up for redemption at the 'Cake Tin' in Wellington, we sent a little something from home – the ultimate bring and braai – to deliver the 'gees', the Sixty60 way, of course.

END