

Soweto gets special delivery from Yvonne Chaka Chaka

Shoprite Sixty60 has joined hands with the legendary Yvonne Chaka Chaka to commemorate her 60th birthday with a delivery of essential food items to elderly residents of Soweto.

Sixty60 launches at Shoprite Protea Glen on 20 March, making it the second store to bring the convenience of on-demand grocery delivery to Soweto, with Shoprite Jabulani already up and running since last year.

It also coincides with a very special time for the “Princess of Africa” as she celebrates exactly 40 years since she took to the stage in Soweto, for her first ever live performance.

“I wanted to honour the people and the place that shaped me by giving back, and it is very fitting to do so in partnership with a brand like Shoprite. They’ve been a part of our community since Soweto’s first mall opened in my neighbourhood of Dobsonville three decades ago, and I am so happy to see their service evolve through Shoprite Sixty60,” said Mam’ Chaka Chaka.

Working closely with community leaders, she returned to her place of birth this week to deliver Shoprite Sixty60 bags packed with groceries to 100 families.

Shoprite Sixty60 remains true to the supermarket’s low-price promise, while providing convenient, fast delivery of grocery essentials at in-store prices, and offering the same instant Xtra Savings rewards on the app and at the till.

The on-demand delivery service has already launched at Shoprite Atlantis and Shoprite Kleinmond in the Western Cape, and Shoprite Kriel in Mpumalanga. Fourteen more stores across eight provinces are set to follow in a phased roll-out that will ensure that each new location delivers the excellence and efficiency that has become synonymous with Sixty60.
