

Shoprite assists Hammanskraal community following floods

Shoprite reached out to assist community members affected by the floods in Hammanskraal this past weekend.

The retailer donated food parcels containing cooking oil, instant soup, rice, samp, beans and other non-perishables for distribution by #Not in My Name to the affected families. The Shoprite Mobile Soup Kitchen also served cups of warm soup to the more than 500 people housed at the Sebothoma Hall.

"Shoprite is committed to supporting vulnerable communities and will always avail its resources to help when disaster strikes," said Sanjeev Raghubir, Group Sustainability Manager.
