1. CONSTITUTION

- 1.2 The duties and responsibilities of the members of the NomCo are in addition to those as members of the Board. The deliberations of the NomCo do not reduce the individual and collective responsibilities of Board members with regard to their fiduciary duties and responsibilities, and they must continue to exercise due care and judgement in accordance with their statutory obligations.
- 1.3 These terms of reference are subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 71 of 2008 (as amended), the Company's Memorandum of Incorporation ("MOI"), the principles of governance, the Code of Ethics and any other applicable law or regulatory provision.

2. PURPOSE OF THE TERMS OF REFERENCE

- 2.1 The purpose of this Terms of Reference is to set out the NomCo's role and responsibilities as delegated by the Board, as well as the requirements for its composition and meeting procedures.

3. COMPOSITION

- 3.1 The NomCo shall comprise of not less than three (3) directors appointed by the Board, all of whom shall be non-executive directors and the majority deemed independent.
- 3.2 Members of the NomCo and its Chairman are nominated by the Board. The Chairman of the Board is an ex officio member of the NomCo.

- 3.3 The Company Secretary is the secretary to this NomCo.
- 3.4 The CEO will not be a member of this NomCo.
- 3.5 The members of the NomCo as a whole must have sufficient qualifications, knowledge, skills, experience and capacity to fulfil their duties effectively.

4. ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1 ROLE

- 4.1.1 The NomCo has an independent role as an overseer and a maker of recommendations to the Board for its consideration and final approval.
- 4.1.2 The NomCo does not assume the functions of management, which remain the responsibility of the executive directors, officers and other members of senior management.
- 4.1.3 The role of the NomCo is to assist the Board to ensure that:
- the Board has the appropriate composition for it to execute its duties objectively and effectively;
 - directors are nominated, elected and appointed through a formal process;
 - induction and ongoing training and development of directors take place; and
 - formal succession plans for the Board, CEO and senior management appointments are in place.

4.2 RESPONSIBILITIES

The NomCo must perform all the functions necessary to fulfil its role as stated above, which include the following:

- 4.2.1 Ensure the establishment of a formal and transparent process for the nomination, election and appointment of directors, including:
- identification of suitable candidates to serve on the Board, while considering the specific considerations regarding Board composition, as set out in 4.2.7;
 - consideration of whether candidates meet the appropriate fit and proper criteria;
 - performance of reference checks, independent background checks and verification of qualifications of candidates prior to nomination;
 - ensuring that candidates for election as non-executive directors provide details of other professional commitments and a statement that confirms that the candidate has sufficient time available to fulfil the responsibilities as a board member;
 - ensuring that the appointment of directors is approved by the Board as a whole; and
 - formalising the appointment of directors and the terms for serving as a board member through an agreement between the Company and the director.
- 4.2.2 Recommend for approval by the Board the targets for race and gender representation in its membership.
- 4.2.3 Oversee the development and implementation of a formal induction programme for new directors.
- 4.2.4 Oversee the development and implementation of continuing professional development programmes for directors.
- 4.2.5 Ensure that directors receive regular briefings on changes in risks, laws and the environment in which the Company operates.

- 4.2.6 Regularly review the Board and sub-committee structure, size and composition and make recommendations to the Board with regards to any adjustments that are deemed necessary.
- 4.2.7 Conduct a board composition assessment to consider the following aspects:
- the Board as a whole and sub-committees contain the appropriate mix of independence, knowledge, skills and experience in its membership;
 - the appropriate mix of executive, non-executive and independent non-executive members are represented on the main Board and the sub-committees. The Board should comprise a majority of non-executive members, with the majority of non-executive members independent;
 - a balanced distribution of power in respect of membership across sub-committees, so that no individual has the ability to dominate decision-making, and no undue reliance is placed on any individual director;
 - the CEO and CFO should be appointed to the Board to ensure direct interaction with Management;
 - there is a sufficient number of members that qualify to serve on board sub-committees;
 - the need to secure a quorum at all meetings;
 - specific regulatory requirements as applicable; and

This evaluation should take into consideration time constraints to be placed on the CEO, potential conflict of interest as well as balancing the opportunity for professional development.
- 4.2.11 Determine and recommend for approval by the Board the number of outside professional positions that the Chairman is allowed to hold, taking into account the relative size and complexity of the organisations involved.
- 4.2.12 Ensure that each director, subject to legal provisions, submit to the NomCo and the Board a declaration of all financial, economic and other interests held by the director and related parties, at least annually or when significant changes occur, and consider such declarations when assessing the independence of each director.
- 4.2.13 Assess, formalise and recommend for approval by the Board the independence of each director for purpose of categorisation in terms of the independence indicators contained in the Board terms of reference.
- 4.2.14 Annually assess and recommend for approval by the Board the independence of directors with tenure of 9 (nine) years and longer in terms of the independence indicators contained in the Board terms of reference. This assessment should conclude whether the director exercised objective judgement and there is no interest, position, association or relationship which, when judged from the perspective of a reasonable and informed third party, is likely to influence unduly or cause bias in decision-making.

- 4.2.15 Annually assess the independence of the Board holistically taking into consideration, amongst others, the total skills, experience and diversity required of the Board to ensure that it functions optimally.
- 4.2.16 Ensure that formal succession plans (including identification, mentorship and development of future candidates) for the Board, the Chairman, the CEO and senior management appointments are developed and implemented. These should be reviewed periodically and should also provide for succession in emergency situations as well as longer term.
- 4.2.17 Recommend directors that are retiring by rotation, for re-election, taking into consideration the following:
- the director's performance, including attendance at meetings of the Board and its committees; and
 - the need to balance the introduction of new expertise and perspectives, while retaining valuable knowledge, skills and experience and maintaining the necessary continuity in its membership.
- 4.2.18 Liaise with the Board in relation to the preparation of the NomCo report to shareholders as and when required ensuring that the following is included in the notice of the AGM, a:
